LOCAL ATTRACTIONS / ACTIVITIES

In addition to Checkpoint Charlie, Brandenburg Gate, Deutscher Bundestag (Reichstag) and the Holocaust Memorial, we recommend a few lesser-known local attractions.

East Side Gallery 105 paintings by artists from all over the world, painted in 1990 on the east side of the Berlin Wall (and close to Radialsystem).

Mauerpark: Open every Sunday, Flohmarkt am Mauerpark (Mauerpark Flea Market) is popular with both locals and tourists. The park straddles a stretch of the former Berlin Wall.

Berlin Computer Games Museum (Computerspielemuseum)
Focused on the history of games and how they have evolved over the years, including hands-on exhibits. Really fun!

Craft Beer Tour (advanced registration required)

German Technical Museum: Dedicated to transportation, manufacturing and technology, the museum boasts an impressive array of radios, phones, planes, sea-faring vessels and two whole locomotive sheds on its sprawling campus.
